Exhibition Review Panel (2028/2029) – Expression of Interest Form

The Callander Museum & Alex Dufresne Art Gallery invites qualified artists and arts professionals to express their interest in serving on the 2028/2029 Exhibition Review Panel.

The Exhibition Review Panel plays an important role in evaluating exhibition submissions and recommending exhibitions for inclusion in future gallery programming. Panel members help ensure a fair, transparent, and high-quality selection process that reflects the artistic vision of the Gallery and the interests of the broader community.

Completion of this form indicates interest only. Selection of panel members will be based on eligibility, experience, and the overall composition of the review panel.

Mandatory Eligibility Criteria

To be considered, applicants must meet all of the following mandatory criteria.

1. Previous Exhibition Experience

- Must have participated in an exhibition at the Alex Dufresne Art Gallery within the past ten (10) years.
- Must demonstrate familiarity with professional exhibition practices.

2. Geographic Eligibility

- Must reside within 100 kilometres of Callander, Ontario.

3. Conflict of Interest

- Must not be scheduled to exhibit at the Alex Dufresne Art Gallery during the 2028 or 2029 exhibition seasons. Please note that this does not include participation in open call shows. Panelists may still participate in open call shows throughout 2028-2029.
- Must disclose any potential conflicts of interest relating to applicants under review.

4. Commitment to Fair Evaluation

- Will evaluate submissions objectively and respectfully.
- Will maintain confidentiality throughout the review process.
- Will act in the best interests of the Gallery and its exhibition program.

Mandatory Criteria Confirmation

By completing this form, you confirm that you meet all of the above eligibility requirements.
